DARTMOUTH ALTERNATIVES! SOCIETY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

February 20, 1986

Strong, Maine

From international headquarters of the redoubtable Dartmouth Alernatives! Society (DA!S), located in the spacious and tastefully appointed DA!S Recreational Pavilion in Strong, Maine, comes the announcement of election of four members of the Dartmouth College Class of 1971 and two of the Class of 1969 as Fellows of the Society. According to the Rev. Bruce Saboski, Executive Director of the Society, election to Fellowship is an honor bestowed to Dartmouth College Alumni who have distinguished themselves creatively in their chosen profession. Previous Fellows (some elected posthumously) include such distinguished names as Daniel Webster, Nelson Rockefeller and Dr Seuss. Fellowship elections are normally held once every 16 years.

This year's recipients are:

Cameron Bopp, MD, '71, a physician and maple syrup manufacturer from Farmington, Maine;

Russell D Brough, '71, President of Brough Associates, a Boston creative consulting group, and noted tenants' rights activist;

Vincent A Ferraro, PhD, '71, Chairman of the International Relations Department, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

--more--

David Rees Gilliatt, '69, prominent New York City attorney and watersportsman;

John McG Ritchie, '71, Assistant Headmaster of Brookline (Massachusetts) High School and media consultant; and Rodney G Smith, '69, Deputy Chief Counsel to the President's Commission on Organized Crime, of Chevy Chase, Maryland.

--END--

Copies sent to: Office of the Headmaster, Brookline High School
Office of the Chief Counsel, The President's Commission on Organized Crime
Public Relations Office, Mount Holyoke College
Morgan, Tau and Fridkin, Attorneys at Law, New York
Tenants against Unfair Fakery (TUF), Boston