DARTMOUTH ALTERNATIVES! SOCIETY

June 26, 1983

To: All Charter and Honorary DAS members

From: DAS Subcommittee on Recreational and Educational Activities

Re: Upcoming Weekend Activities - July 4th

Pursuant to prior communications and recommendations, it was deemed appropriate to draw up a tentative schedule of suggested educational and recreational activities/exercises/events which would provide equal opportunity for participation by all parties involved. It was further deemed that since these exercises are voluntary and, in many cases, ludicrous, the schedule in no way violates the spontaneity principle outlined in a previous memo (DAS memorandum: Planning Subcommittee; 6/8/83). In addition, the anticipated large turnout dictates that considerable advanced planning be undertaken to minimize the "Mandatory Milling Period" (MMP) which seriously limits the time to be allocated to feasting, debauching, self-abasement and other licentious behavior. Please familiarize yourselves with the following items.

REGISTRATION:

Registration will take place Fri., July 1, from 5:00 pm to 10:00 pm and Saturday, 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Enrollment and interest, or lack thereof, in various courses/activities will be evaluated at that time. There will, of course, be a late registration penalty. Late registrants will spend a night in the chicken coop.

GENERAL GROUP ACTIVITIES:

Film Society - Fri. 10 pm - "The Perfessor and the Naughty Coeds" starring Vinnie "the Italian Stallion"

Wine Tasting - (continuous)

Various imported and/or domestic vintages will be sampled extensively throughout the weekend festivities. In fact, in an effort to raise the collective consciousness, participants will be encouraged to partake of the various potables provided. In fact anyone caught not drinking will spend a night in the chicken coop and lose his/her sauna privileges.

Debate - Sat 10 pm

Resolved: "Only lawyers should be allowed to carry guns, damn it, to protect themselves from loudmouthed, stinking, fagget, commie, rat-bastard scum!"

Capt. of "Pro" team: David "Straight Shooter" Gilliatt

Capt. of "Con" team: Vincent "Master Debater" Ferraro

Film Society - Sat 12 midnight

"The Doctor and the Naughty Nurses"

FIREWORKS: Mon. July 4th. (sundown) - followed by a dramatic reading of the United Snakes Contitution and Bill of Rights by Prof. V Ferraro

COURSES AND SEMINARS:

In addition to the standard course catalog offerings (Windsurfing, Kite Flying, Pig Roasting, etc.) a few additional courses may be added this year as follows:

JUGGLING FOR ANOSMICS: Sat & Sun 10 -111
Instructor: R.D.Brough, BA

The techniques of juggling are taught relying largely on the senses of sight and touch so that even individuals lacking a sense of smell can master this highly complex skill so valuable in today's competitive marketplace.

EQUESTRIAN ARTS or THE VALLEY GIRL RIDES AGAIN: Sat & Sun & Mon 9-10 am
Instructor: Jan Healy Bopp, RN

Like, Jan gets on this totally awesome beastie, ya know, and like rides it around and stuff, and then like, if yer super super nice she might like let you get on it and junk, like, I dunno. Fer sherr.

1001 USES FOR VELVEETA: Sun 11 - 12
Instructor: Mrs. John M. Ritchie (housewife)

Not to be confined to the kitchen, Mrs. Ritchie demonstrates other uses of the ubiquitous process cheese food such as a quick-fix tile grout, as fuel for the family barbeque, or in fashioning attractive edible toys for the kids.

NUDE LANDSCAPE PAINTING: Sun 4 - 6
Instructor: Karen Gilliatt, MFA

Miss Karen Demonstrates the art of creating lovely scenic paintings in the buff.

INTERROGATION THE WOODHOUSE WAY: Sat 4 - 5
Instructor: Rodney "Sarge" Smith (Ret)

The modern methods of extracting confessions from drug dealers, war criminals and the like using simple positive reinforcement (voice encouragement, Liv-a-snaps, large sums of money) are compared and contrasted to more traditional methods.

MICROWAVE COMPUTER PROGRAMMING: Sun 12 - 2
Instructor: Priscilla Mandraccia Ferraro

Using state-of-the-art hardware ( DEC 3000 128K RAM Storage, Appollo I/O control, Plus CAD/CAM software and interfaces) the instructor demonstrates how to create a perfect souffle in less than four times the time it would actually take by hand.

HIT SONGWRITING: Sat 12 - 1
Instructor: Johnny Rich, recording artist

The craft of writing hit songs, particularly humorous songs, will be examined with ideas submitted by the entire class in the hope that they will discover the secret of the "Hit Song" allowing Mr. Rich to steal the ideas and become rich and famous on his own.

LEGAL "BRIEFS": Sat 4 - 6
Instructor: Martha "Smith" (not her real name), Esq.

A probing examination of the sex lives of newly married attorneys. Topics include: "Making Suggestive Motions", "Provocative Interrogatives", and "Boudoir Fashions to make his Subpoena Stand Up in Court".

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY: Sun, Mon 5 - 7 am
Instructor: Vincent Ferraro, BA, PhD

Mr. Ferraro extends his vast experience in international relations to the animal kngdom in an effort to help students to achieve closer more intimate relations with our four-footed brethren of the farm. Students may feel a bit sheepish as the instructor demonstrates the arcane technique of "shrimping".

SLAM DUNK STUDIES: Sun , Mon 9 - 10
Instructor: Alexander "Dr J Clyde the Juice" Ritchie

The art of the slam dunk is examined from the "sky hook" up to the popular present day "Thunder Dunk".

ADDENDUM:

Courses are subject to change and rescheduling without prior notice. Participants should feel free to comment or make additions as they feel necessary.

See you there.

Long live Bruce,

Russell D. Brough
